TELEPHONE:	214-823-5700
EMAIL:	lender@theseniorsource.org
(Attach a brief, maximum one-page, biography or vita for this presenter.)
SESSION DESCRIPTION: (Please write a concise, action oriented description that provides important facts and generates excitement about the session. Focus on your primary session objective and let potential participants know what you expect will happen as a result of the session. Focus on issues and outcomes rather than the speakers. Please limit your description to 50 words. This description will be the basis of text used in promotional materials.)	Multigenerations living together in one house or a compound is not uncommon, but in bad economic times, families may live together out of necessity and not necessarily because they want to. The presentation will include statistics, reasons for multigenerational living, ground rules, importance of someone being in charge and common problems. Role play will emphasize the issues and questions and answers will clarify information.
LEARNING OBJECTIVES AND RELEVANCE TO FIELD OF AGING
LEARNING OBJECTIVES: (What do you want the audience to learn? Please indicate 2 or 3 learning objectives, being as specific as possible. Consider what the audience is likely to be looking for at the conference when crafting the session objectives.)	By the end of this session, attendees will:
	<table border="1" style="width: 100%;"> <tr> <td style="width: 5%; text-align: center;">1.</td> <td>Understand that multiple generations living under one roof is not strange.</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;">2.</td> <td>Realize that planning ahead can lay the ground work for a successful living situation.</td> </tr> </table>	1.	Understand that multiple generations living under one roof is not strange.	2.
1.	Understand that multiple generations living under one roof is not strange.
2.	Realize that planning ahead can lay the ground work for a successful living situation.

	3.	Be aware of some tools to help with resolving conflict.

RELEVANCE TO FIELD OF AGING: (How will your session add value to the field of aging? Briefly respond – a few sentences per question.)	1. Why would those working or interested in aging-related issues be interested in this session? It is usually older adults moving in with children and grandchildren or children and grandchildren moving in with older adults.
	2. How will the session explain a program implementation strategy and identify lessons learned in replicating it for others? Attendees will gain tools to help others in their community who may be considering multigenerational living.
	3. How is the specific issue or strategy in your session connected to other work being done on this issue, or how does it represent a change? Most people who live together do not take the time to discuss issues that could come up and plan ahead, and this presentation advocates planning ahead and provides a list of ground rules.

ADDITIONAL PRESENTER(S)

We prefer sessions that have no more than two presenters due to the limited time available per session. NOTE: Please tentatively confirm each presenter at this time. The final conference sessions will not be selected and announced until December. You may be asked to make changes to the session as proposed.
